Dr. Copeland Looks for Big Decrease in New Cases Next Week.

MAYOR AIDS IN BURIALS

Letter Bids Health Commissioner Send Laborers to Dig Graves.

With a smaller number of new influeasa and pneumonia cases being reported to the Health Department yes terday and with discharges from the city hospitals greater than admissions, the epidemic which has held New York in its grasp and at times assumed critical proportions appears to be burning Dr. Robertson advised lights out at 10 itself out slowly but steadily.

Health Commissioner Royal S. Cope land, while not admitting that the epidemic is over, said yesterday the figures were gratifying and he believes that next week will see a sudden and big decrease in new cases.

Since the Health Department began to record the epidemic figures, $8,555 mass of influenza were reported with 5,976 deaths therefrom. The figures also show 11,387 pneumonia cases and 5,684 pneu- from influenza, England being particu-monia deaths.

It was announced that the Health the epidemic is striking harder and that Department has been instrumental in the it is more widespread, with the death it is more widespread. Department has been instrumental in the arrest of 500 spitters who have been fined from $1 to 320 apiece and that a inrge number of subway smokers have paid fines for their forbidden puffs. At the same time Dr. Copeland announced that the inspectors of the Department. I have asked the Health Commissioner to disregard this and exercise his authority under the law and send men to the cemeteries to asand send men to the cemeteries to assist in burying the dead.

"Dr. Copeland will call upon you for laborers, and I will appreciate it very much if you will assist him in every possible way. Picks and shovels will be needed also."

In order to facilitate the fight being ide by the authorities against the idemic, the Internal Revenue Collector in the Third New York district yesterday announced the modification of the law prohibiting the refilling of narcotic pre-scriptions. The modification reads:

"Prescriptions calling for morphine, codeine or heroin which are written by registered practitioners for patients suf-fering from Spanish Influence and any pulmonary or bronchial affections ma until further notice, be refilled, provided that at the time of issuance by physicians instructions are noted in the body of such prescriptions, "Repeat if ary," and the druggist filling and refilling the same shall note thereon each and every date upon which such prescription is refilled."

Help for Police Families.

Mrs. Ellen A. O'Grady, Fifth Deputy olice Commissioner, appealed vesterday acting Commissioner John A. Leach for financial aid for the families of policemen who have died or been stricken during the epidemic. Mrs. O'Grady said that the last dollar in the welfare bureau of the department had been expended and that there is pressing need for assistance.
